30 KILLED WHEN TWENTIETH CENTURY CRASHES INTO PASSENGER WRECK

PASSENGERS, DAZED BY FIRST COLLISION, GROUND TO DEATH AS LIMITED PLOWS INTO DEBRIS

New York Central System Has Frightful Accident Near Cleveland.

FOG BLAMED FOR TRAGEDY

By Associated Press.

CLEVELAND, March 29.—At least 30 persons were killed—the exact total may not be known until nightfall—and more than 40 injured in the wreck early today of three of the New York Central's crack passenger trains, a mile west of Amherst.

Twenty-five bodies had been taken out at noon and five more are known to be in the debris.

When the total of dead and injured is finally ascertained the wreck will surpass in its cost of life and limb even the wreck of the Twentieth Century Limited at Mentor in 1904, when the famous train piled into a freight on its second trip on the New York-Chicago 20-hour run.

So badly mangled were some of the dead that fragments were gathered up in a basket and taken to the improvised morgue at Amherst.

All the dead were passengers on the flyer.

The identified dead are:

WALTER B. EASTON, 1200 Kirdum street, Philadelphia.

FRANK GALLAGHER, 40 Arch street, Brooklyn.

DORO ROSENBERG, 52 Agnes street, Toronto.

D FRECHTMAN, 92 Gerard street, Toronto.

R. THOMAS, Fairmont avenue, Philadelphia.

J. H. HEARN, Gallipolis, O.

GYORGY GJONCA, Indianapolis.

ROSENDAHL, Indianapolis.

EDWARD LEROY, Elliott avenue, St. Louis; dead at Lorain.

BRUCE BROWNLEE, address unknown, dead at Lorain.

The first section of the flyer had stopped at a watering tank and a flagman was sent back to warn the second section, following a short distance behind. The engineer, because of a heavy fog, did not see the signal, and continued on his way until his engine crashed into the rear of the first section.

Several coaches were buckled across the westbound track on which the Twentieth Century, on its way from Cleveland to Chicago, was speeding through the mist, and before it could be stopped it had plowed into the wreck, reducing the cars to kindling wood.

The rear coaches of the flyer's second section were filled with foreigners and the fatalities here were greatest. Scarcely recovered from the shock of the first collision, they were ground beneath the heavy wheels of the engine of the flyer, or crushed by the toppling of the huge steel coaches.

Before the first wreck they had been asleep, numbers of them having removed their coats containing such identification papers as they happened to have. As these were scattered by the wreck, all hope of identification in many instances was lost.

Crews of the trains quickly summoned help and physicians hurried from adjoining towns, while Elyria sent such supplies as could be hastily gathered together. Relief trains were ordered from Cleveland and other places and were soon on the ground.

The bodies of the dead were taken to Amherst and the injured to Elyria, where they were given medical attention in the hospitals. Such of the passengers as escaped unhurt were brought to Cleveland.

No one was killed on the Twentieth Century, although a number in the forward coaches were hurt.

Alfred Fritzele, Cleveland salesman for a fire extinguisher company, was in the Toledo sleeper of the first section and escaped injury. He helped in the rescue and then came on to Cleveland.

Orrin Deffay, Pittsburg, who came through with Fritzele, says he was [illegible] jolted by a woman across the aisle when the crash came. Deffay was unhurt.

A. Cattendy, Pittsburg, coming from Chicago, said he saw a woman die in the wreck before he could extricate her. Another woman he saw was badly injured and a man had his arms torn from their sockets.

When the last named three left only 13 of the 40 occupants of the day coach were accounted for. They placed the number of dead at between 25 and 30.

According to Fritzele and Deffay, the first section stopped five minutes after it left Amherst and was just picking up speed when the first crash came. Two minutes later, they said, the second occurred.

Some of the members of the crews of the three trains involved in the wreck escaped with scratches and bruises.

C. C. Robinson, Toledo, engineer of the Twentieth Century, crawled uninjured from under his engine after it had plunged 400 feet along the ties. His fireman, Walter Mann, and the conductor, M. B. Burke, Buffalo, also were unhurt.

John Keller, conductor of the second section of No. 86, and Frank Dunnel, in charge of the first section and other injured members of the crews assisted in caring for injured passengers and in clearing away wreckage.

Search was being made for the bodies of two express messengers expected to be found among express car wreckage piled 20 feet high.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—H. W. Belnap, chief of the division of safety of the Interstate Commerce Commission, will leave here late today to investigate the Lake Shore wreck near Cleveland. George H. Ellis, of the division of safety, stationed at Chicago, at H. A. McAdam, stationed at Pittsburgh, already are enroute for the wreck.

URGES DREADNOUGHTS

Assistant Secretary of Navy Say They Win Bloodless Victories.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Dreadnoughts have won the greatest victory of the European war without firing a shot, Assistant Secretary Roosevelt of the navy told the house naval committee. With enough dreadnoughts, he said, the United States would win a "bloodless victory" in a war.

"Today the United States is richer and weaker than ever in its history in comparison with other powers," Mr. Roosevelt said, explaining that the nation has great potential resources but a "handful of an army," and a navy weaker than several powers for immediate defense.

By keeping the fleet "out of the seas," Mr. Roosevelt said, the British dreadnoughts had attained the aim for which they were built.

CASE FROM CONNELLSVILLE ON

Sausage Maker Seeks to Recover Damages From Rohm Provision Company as Result of Accident in Which He was Injured; Other Civil Cases.

Special to The Courier.

UNIONTOWN, March 29.—Fayette county is defendant in a damage suit for $25,000, the trial of which was started before Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen this forenoon. William H. Herbertson and others, owners of real estate in Bridge street, South Brownsville, allege that their property was damaged by the erection of the Brownsville bridge between Fayette and Washington counties. The jury in the case was selected yesterday, and accompanied by the attorneys interested, the jurymen were taken to Brownsville in the afternoon and shown the premises. Immediately after the conclusion of the Herbertson case against the county, the trial of a similar case for $25,000 damages brought by the trustees in bankruptcy of John E. Rickard, a bankrupt, will be taken up.

Before Judge E. H. Reppert, the trial of the trespass suit of Louis Decenka a sausage maker of Connellsville, against the Rohm Provision Company of Connellsville is being tried. Decenka is asking for $10,000 damages for injuries he is alleged to have sustained in the fall of 1913 when employed by the provision company. According to the testimony of the plaintiff, the case is one of the most peculiar that ever has been tried in the Fayette county courts. At the plant of the Rohm company, it is said, the sausage making room is in the basement, just under the cooling room. On the day Decenka was injured it is said he was in the sausage room making bologna sausage. There was a small hole in the floor, it is alleged, and some person in the upper room poured dirty water through the hole. Decenka was operating the grinder in the basement. He jumped out of the way of the water which was coming down upon him, and slipped on the greasy floor. A part of his body, it is said, struck the belt, starting the grinder. In trying to balance himself his hand went into the unguarded hopper of the grinding machine, cutting him severely and causing permanent injuries.

Judge Van Swearingen this morning charged the jury in the case of Miss Cora B. Savage against the Fayette Laundry Company, the $20,000 damage suit which has been on trial since last Friday. The testimony closed yesterday afternoon and the arguments were made to the jury. The girl claims damages for injuries received when her hands were permanently injured in the mangle on January 5, 1914.

30 IN THE LOCKUP

Unusually Large Number of Prisoners are in Cells.

As a result of the large number of arrests by the police this week, there are about 30 prisoners in the city lockup serving sentences imposed yesterday and today. The cell room is crowded.

Clarence Thomas, arrested for drunkenness, received his sentence in a cell as the lock on the door refused to yield to the efforts of the policemen. Inasmuch as he has 48 hours to serve, the fact that he is locked in a cell need not worry him, as yet.

The police have determined to go after the bums which infest the city at this time, notwithstanding the fact that work is plentiful everywhere.

CAVALRY BELIEVED TO BE CLOSE ON VILLA'S HEELS

Carranza Authorities Expect Much Trouble if Bandit is Not Taken Soon.

EL PASO, March 29.—The hunt for Francisco Villa by the flying column of American cavalry continued relentlessly today but from the meagreness of the official dispatches from General Pershing's advanced base it was impossible to learn the position of the American troops and how far they were in the rear of the fleeing bandits. Villa was last heard of heading southward toward the Tarahumare mountain country, his command driving their Mexican ponies at full speed and being closely pressed by the American troopers.

Commanders of Carranza troops in the Chihuahua region apparently have lost trace of Villa and his men for no report has been received by Mexican officials here for some time concerning the bandit's whereabouts.

Armed bands of Villa forces are reported in various parts of Chihuahua and in some numbers around Torreon, but they are operating independently of the main Villa command.

Carranza officials at Juarez express their belief that Villa will try to establish a main base at some point after he has thrown the American cavalry off his trail and then recruit his command to one of large proportion from the bands now roving about the Southern Chihuahua district. Villa, the Carranza authorities think, will then engage in a marauding campaign that would give the American and Carranza forces no end of trouble.

10.00 A. M.—Cottage prayer meetings in all districts.

2.30 P. M.—Tabernacle, Bob Jones. Old folks service.

With the greatest number of trail hitters in a mid-week service since the first high school night, and one of the largest week-night audiences in the campaign, Bob Jones and his corps had cause for the gratification they felt over the tabernacle service last evening. It is estimated that some 4,400 persons crowded into the big structure on the South Side, and a total of 46 hit the trail.

Greater interest and acitivty was manifested during the invitation period than for some nights past. There was, throughout the service, an atmosphere of a revival of interest that contrasted strongly with the rather evident lack of enthusiasm that marked virtually all of the meetings last week. While at no time has there been apparent absence of enthusiasm, the fifth week of the campaign was by far the quietest of all, and the start of this week with the service on Monday night threatened to make the closing week less interesting than all.

Whatever fears were entertained that the final week of the campaign would not measure up to the high standard set in the earlier meetings were dissipated with the response to the invitation at last night's service.

There were delegations present last night from the West Side and South Connellsville volunteer firemen's organizations. Patriotic Order Sons of America, the trades assembly and the suffragets, and visitors from Dawson and Dunbar. The woman suffrage delegation was most prominently in the limelight by virtue of having the platform and the building decorated in suffraze yellow, but when it came to the trail hitters the firemen and the men of the audience demonstrated that the sawdust path was easier for them to trod than for the women. While a goodly proportion of the converts of the evening were women, and not a few little children, the majority were men.

Bob Jones centered his efforts upon the men in the delegation of firemen, and the Connellsville Military Band, which had accompanied them. He was rewarded by seeing a near stampede of firemen, nearly a dozen of them coming forward.

The song service was inspiring. With virtually all the seats in the choir filled, there was a vim to the singing that has been missing for a night or two. The Connellsville Military Band massed itself before the platform and repeated "Billy Sunday's Successful Songs" selection which proved so popular one other night in the campaign, while R. E. Barker's trombone solo, "He Included Me," was a particularly pretty number. The Sons of America had "America" sung, by special request, while the suffragets selected "Battle Hymn of the Republic." The firemen asked for "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds," while the trades unionists chose that song that nine men out of ten like to sing, "The Church in the Wildwood." Loren Jones extended the time of the song service a few minutes to conclude with "Show Your Colors," the choir swinging into "Glory to His Name," on the final chorus.

Following the announcements and the invocation by Rev. W. F. Conley, of the Evangelical Association, at South Connellsville, Captain John L. Gans made a brief talk in behalf of the Bob Jones collection to be taken up Sunday. Captain Gans declared that there were three classes in Connellsville whom it was hoped to benefit during the campaign, those with spralned morals, spralned dispositions and the third and large class, those who had never been constrained to acknowledge Jesus Christ.

"During these six weeks these three classes of people have felt the warm touch of the Gospel message of hope,

CONGRESSMEN WILL VOTE TO APPLY THE LITERACY TEST

Crago, Hopwood and Keister Favor This Feature of the Immigration Measure.

Special to The Courier.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—When the House of Representatives votes, as it is expected to tomorrow, on the Burnett immigration bill containing a literacy test, Representative Hopwood, Crago and Keister, of Pennsylvania, will vote, along with many other Republicans, for the passage of the bill.

In discussing the proposed measure today all three of these members expressed the opinion that they could see no real objection to the literacy test and that it would not keep out of the United States any immigrant who was worthy to come to these shores.

The bill will pass the house tomorrow by a large majority, it is expected, and also will meet with the approval of a large majority in the Senate. As President Wilson vetoed a previous immigration bill because of a literacy test clause, it is fully believed here that he will veto this bill when it reaches him. Many are of the opinion, however, that enough votes can be secured in both bodies of Congress to pass the measure over his veto.

"The literacy test is so simple," said Representative Crago today, "that it can work no real hardship, because any foreigner who wants to come to the United States can learn to read a little in a few months, even if he is not able to read at the time he first makes up his mind he would like to go to America."

"We cannot read the immigrant's heart and tell in that way whether he would make a good citizen," said Representative Hopwood, in giving his reasons why he proposed to vote for the bill, "but we can read something of the immigrant's mind and gain a possible clue in this manner as to whether he is likely to be a good American citizen."

"I intend to vote for the bill," said Representative Keister. "It seems to me that there is no injustice to anybody in the world in the literacy test embodied in this immigration bill. The immigrant should be willing to do something in return for the liberty which he expects to enjoy here. It should not be all on one side, all give and no take. If the immigrant wants to come here, he should be ready to prove himself worthy."

PLANS ARE UPSET

Salvation Army Unable to Obtain Miller Cafe Quarters.

Plans of the Salvation Army for the formal opening of downtown quarters next Tuesday have been upset because of the unexpected failure of Captain L. N. Phelps to obtain a lease on the storeroom formerly occupied by Miller's Cafe.

Some days ago Captain Phelps says he received from Dr. G. W. Newcomer the promise that he could have the room for a year. When the captain returned this morning to formally execute the lease he was informed that other plans had been made.

Invitations to the ministers and out-of-town officers of the Salvation Army to take part in the Tuesday service have been recalled and Captain Phelps has taken up the rather wearying search for new quarters.

MOUNT PLEASANT BEGINS OPEN WAR ON ONE MAN CAR

ARREST OF CREW IS EXPECTED

Tarr and Ruffsdale Citizens Attend Council Meeting and Allege That Safety-First Principles Are Not Being Observed on Moorewood Line.

At a meeting of the Mount Pleasant town council last night, it was unanimously decided to direct the burgess to stop the West Penn from running one-man cars through the borough on the Mount Pleasant-Tarr line. It was expected that Burgess Shields would make the first step by arresting the crew of the one-man car.

This action was taken after residents of Tarr, Ruffsdale and Mount Pleasant had told council that in their opinion the operation of cars with one man acting as both motorman and conductor was unsafe. Several instances in which slight accidents occurred or mishaps were narrowly averted were cited. The motion to have the burgess stop the cars from running was adopted without a dissenting vote and the offer of C. W. Michael superintendent of the Greensburg division for the West Penn, to give half hour service between Mount Pleasant and Tarr, but with a one-man car, was not considered.

The one-man car has been a source of much discussion in Mount Pleasant and the matter has been taken up with the transportation officials who declared that the line does not pay well enough to warrant cars manned by a full crew. The car runs daily except Saturday and days when traffic is unusually heavy. Then larger cars with both motorman and conductor are put on.

It was intimated that if the West Penn contested the borough's right to stop the cars, the council would take up the matter with the Public Service Commission.

HUNT A MURDER

Clergymen, Policeman and Crowd of the Curious in Futile Search.

Two excited clergymen, one less excited policeman and a crowd of greatly excited people participated in an exciting search for an alleged murder on the West Side about 5.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Rev. G. L. C. Richardson and Rev. W. J. Everhart, who had been holding services at the West Side Gro station, decided to accompany Patrolman Thomas McDonald, who had been summoned by telephone. Seeing the policeman and the clergymen proceeding at as rapid rate as dignity and avordupois would allow, the populace became interested and followed on.

There wasn't any murder, though there was blood enough to justify the call for the police. Some men who were bleeding a sick horse in John Miller's stable on Seventh street threw the gory rags outside and Rev. Theodore Siatecki, the Polish priest, called the police station in the belief that somebody had been massacred.

At first the patrolman, and his clerical companions went down Seventh street to the end without finding anything that looked like a murder. As they came back Rev. Siatecki motioned them toward the stable. Inquiring of the men there in their politest tones as to the nearest murder, they were told that nothing of that sort was permitted on the West Side. Then the truth was made known and the crowd dispersed.

APPLE MARKET GLUTTED

So great is the supply of winter apples in storage, produce dealers say, that there remain 5,000,000 barrels of apples to be marketed before June 1, thus allowing an apple a day for every man, woman and child in the United States for the next 30 days. Since there are thousands who will not eat their pro-rated allotment, the local fruit men declare that the public in the Pittsburg territory will be counted upon to devour an average of two or more apples a day, per capita, during this period.

Every effort is being made to force the apples into consumption. Prices by the barrel or box are at a low level, and with prospects of one of the heaviest crops of strawberries ever produced in the southern states, dealers are selling their best grades of apples at the best prices they can get.

A Crisp, Delicious "Snack" for luncheon or after-the-theater, or any old time when the appetite craves "something different," is TRISCUIT, the Shredded Whole Wheat toast. Heat it in the oven to restore its crispness, then serve with butter, soft cheese or marmalades. As a toast for chafing dish cookery it is a rare delight. It is full of real nutriment.

NOW WRITING HYMNS.

Former Connellsville Minister Puts New Words to Old Tunes.

Inspired by revival services which are being conducted at Knoxville, Rev. A. E. Fletcher of Knoxville, and a former pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church of this city, has become a writer of hymns.

Twice since the opening of the campaign Dr. Fletcher has found occasion to write new words to old hymn tunes. The first of the two was sung Sunday morning in Dr. Fletcher's own church.

BOB JONES HAS A BIG SERVICE AND MANY HIT TRAIL

ambition, inspiration and enthusiasm, and I have been graciously transformed," he said. "Any agency, any organized band of workers, which leavens and sweetens the life of a community, creats new bonds of friendship and brings the people to a new sense of their brotherhood, makes every man, woman and child its debtor."

He urged liberal contribution for Bob Jones on the closing day of the service.

Bob Jones continued his discussion of the atonement during the evening. He quoted extensively from the Scriptures. He declared that in the early stages of his evangelistic career he used to have emotional waves, and noticed that there were times when his message failed to bring the response that was hoped for. "Several years ago I began to build up on God's Word. If you can't go wrong when you use the Bible," he said.

Bob Jones advanced the interpretation that Christ's death on the cross was substitutional and vicarious. The only sinless man in the world, he was treated like a sinner on Calvary. "Jesus Christ, the Just, died for the unjust. God wanted to bring us to him, and conceived the wonderful plan of salvation. God fell down, a dead body, across the path of mankind. God died on the cross when Jesus died.

"Sin was concentrated in the very heart throbs of Jesus on Calvary. That shows what God thinks of sin. If he would not look upon your sin in Jesus, he won't look at it in you."

"The death of Christ on the cross makes God just, and will justify those who accept Jesus. You nice people who say you have lived good lives, and believe that God will not punish you; if you have not accepted Jesus Christ, how can God forgive you? If he would not forgive the sin of his Son, how can he forgive yours?

"God has to punish sin if he is a just God. God sits on a throne of love and mercy. Man rebels; an anarchist in the universe of God. God must punish sin and the sinner, but Jesus Christ came to the cross, so that now I can accept Jesus Christ and the debt is paid.

"Take the position of Christ in the garden. Some folks say He had the ordinary dread of humanity for death. I do not think this is so. I believe in that garden the perfect man, his organism about to be shattered, his soul lonely, in some way felt that life not pass away there in that garden, but be spared to die on the cross. Jesus Christ wanted the tragic death on the cross to become the center of human history on which the millions and millions of human hopes are built. Jesus Christ never dodged the cross."

A departure was made from the usual form of closing the sermon. Instead of offering the invitation at once, Bob Jones had the choir sing several verses of "Peace, Blessed Peace." The response to the appeal was more liberal than usual, especially at the start.

Why Colds Are to be Dreaded.

It is not the cold itself but the serious diseases it so often leads to that makes a common cold by far the most dangerous of any of the minor ailments. The cold prepares your system for the reception and development of the germs of pneumonia, consumption, diphtheria and other germ diseases. The quicker you cure the cold the less the danger. To accomplish this you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy most effectual. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

TO PUT ON FLESH AND INCREASE WEIGHT

Most people eat from four to six pounds of good solid fat-making food every day and still do not increase in weight one ounce, while on the other hand many of the plump chunky folks eat very lightly and keep gaining all the time. It's all bosh to say that this is the nature of the individual. It isn't Nature's way at all.

Most thin people stay thin because their powers of assimilation are defective. They absorb just enough of the food they eat to maintain life and a semblance of health and strength. Stuffing won't help them gain a single "stay there" pound. All the fat-producing elements of their food just stay there in the intestines until they pass from the body as waste. What such people need is something that will prepare these fatty food elements so that their blood can absorb them and deposit them all about the body—something too, that will multiply their red blood corpuscles and increase their blood's carrying power.

For such a condition it is well to recommend eating a Sargol tablet with every meal. Sargol is not, as some believe a patented drug, but is simply a careful combination of six of the most effective and powerful assimilative and flesh building elements known to chemistry. It is absolutely harmless, yet has been wonderfully effective and a single tablet eaten with each meal often, according to reports of users, has the effect of increasing the weight of a thin man or woman from three to five pounds a week. Sargol is sold by good druggists everywhere on a positive guarantee of weight increase or money back.—Adv.

Take Iron, Says Doctor, if You Want Plenty of "Stay There" Strength Like an Athlete!

Ordinary Nuxated Iron Will Make Delicate, Nervous, Rundown People 200 Per Cent Stronger in Two Weeks' Time, in Many Cases.

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Most people foolishly seem to think they are going to get renewed health and strength from some stimulating medicine, secret nostrum or narcotic drug, said Dr. Sauer, a specialist of this city, when, as a matter of fact, real and true strength can only come from the food you eat. But people often fail to get the strength out of their food because they haven't enough iron in their blood to enable it to change food into living matter. From their weakened, nervous condition they know something is wrong, but they can't tell what, so they generally commence doctoring for stomach, liver or kidney trouble or symptoms of some other ailment caused by the lack of iron in the blood. This thing may go on for years, while the patient suffers untold agony. If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test. See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, rundown people who were ailing all the while, double and even triple their strength and endurance and entirely get rid of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days' time simply by taking iron in the proper form, and this after they had in some cases been doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old forms of reduced iron, iron acetate or tincture of iron simply to save a few cents. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed, and assimilated like nuxated iron if you want it to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless. Many an athlete or prize fighter has won the day simply because he knew the secret of great strength and endurance, and filled his blood with iron before he went into the affray, while many another has gone down to ingloricus defeat simply for the lack of iron.

NOTE—Nuxated iron recommended above by Dr. Sauer, is one of the newer organic iron compounds. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach; on the contrary, it is a most potent remedy in early forms of indigestion, as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. The manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron that they offer to forfeit $100.00 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under 60 who lacks iron and increase their strength 200 per cent or over in four weeks' time provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days' time. It is dispensed in this city by A. A. Clarke and all other druggists. —Adv.

WEDNESDAY EVE'G, MAR. 29, 1916.

WE NEED THOMPSON.

Everybody interested in the conservation of coal values earnestly hopes to see the plans of the creditors of J. V. Thompson succeed, because they involve the prices of coal land for some years to come. The Uniontown Herald explains the situation thus:

"Inaugurated but four months ago the Permanent Committee of the J. V. Thompson Creditors' Association has already done much to restore confidence and to bring coal land values back to the point attained before embarrassment of the holders unsettled and depressed them. The far-reaching effect of this movement and its salutary influence is shown by a news report from Morgantown.

"Five months ago a tract of Pittsburg coal near Stumptown, Monongalia county, at forced sale in front of the court house, brought $135 per acre. On Saturday a tract in the same neighborhood sold under the same conditions, brought $330 per acre. Nothing happening in the meantime save the organization of the Permanent Committee and the prosecution of its plans had any effect whatever on the value at which this coal was held. The price realized on Saturday is very close to that at which Thompson coal a short distance away is appraised. Had the tract in question been sold under normal conditions it undoubtedly would have brought as much if not more.

"It only requires the restoration of normal conditions to bring coal back to the highest prices at which it was ever sold. The abnormal conditions which prevailed for a year or so were artificially created. They will be replaced by normal conditions through the Permanent Committee. This will be accomplished much quicker than most folk realize. When that day arrives record prices of the past will not stand long as records."

The Democratic United States District Attorney is trying to put J. V. Thompson in jail chiefly it is suspected because he has been an active Republican, but the people of Western Pennsylvania have other uses for "Jo" and they would like to impress them upon the minds of the federal authorities. The harrying of Thompson at this time can do no good and it may do much ill.

THE SCHOOL BOND ISSUE.

The Connellsville School Board puts up a strong plea for modern school buildings in room of those built in 1863 and 1875, which the board claims are not only out of date but entirely inadequate.

The first objection is not fatal. Some very creditable pupils are graduated from schools housing of no better accommodations. But public school buildings, as well as public school methods generally, should keep pace with the times, provided the cost of doing so is not too great for the community to bear. That question is one to be determined at this bond election. All things considered Connellsville should carry this additional indebtedness with ease.

If the buildings are inadequate it is possible for them to be added to and patched up, but such school buildings are always poor economy, and there is reason to think they would be so in Connellsville.

Upon the whole the weight of testimony continues to be strongly in favor of the $250,000 school bond issue.

WAR ON CUPID.

Th Connellsville postoffice has declared war on Cupid. At the risk of alienating considerable business, the postmaster and his chief assistant have refused to permit married women to have separate boxes for their mail, discouraged the renting of boxes to youthful misses and turned a stern and forbidding front toward flirting in the comfortable atmosphere of the Government building.

The denial of the rights of citizenship to married women plainly indicates that the Democratic declaration in favor of Woman Suffrage is a delusion and a snare, a promise to the ear intended to be broken to the hope.

It would be in vain to extenuate the matter. It is evident that the Democratic administration, in Connellsville at least, believes that woman has no part in Government Ownership which is one of the sacred rights of Citizenship.

But this isn't the first time the Democratic party has broken its faith or fooled the women.

Mount Pleasant furnishes the latest victim of trackwalking. The lesson seems hard to learn. Safety first means walking on the railroad tracks last, yet a great many people walk first on the railroad and let safety come last.

The Salvation Army abides with us more earnestly and actively than ever.

State Inspector Darr knows all about the Connellsville school houses, but Inspector Feehan will have to be shown. In this matter, however, the latter is a Barkis.

The walls of our public schools are fast becoming art galleries of the first water if not of the last oil.

The First National Bank of Connellsville is about to take the third degree.

Fire and flood have scourged the Monongahela railroad.

The sportsmanship of the thief who tried to steal wild turkeys sent here for breeding purposes stopped at the belt line.

American troops are not permitted to ride on the Mexican railroads. Carranza is about as friendly as Villa.

If it proves true that shooting from the solid has caused the West Virginia mine disaster the Department of Mines of Pennsylvania will be able to say, "I told you so."

President Wilson's submarine policy will get this country into deep water yet.

The Republicans in Congress are withholding from the Democratic administration nothing needed for national defense. They are Patriots first and Politicians afterwards

Every now and then the State of Ohio resumes its ancient job as the Bottom of the Lake.

When we have made Villa into a corpse we have an offer of real money for it.

The electric steel billet mill is in sight and Connellsville does not propose to let it get out of sight.

The Democratic House has definitely crossed Prohibition and Woman Suffrage off its calendar.

There's a glut of apples in the market. Eat apples and forget the high cost of living.

Facts Versus Fallacies

FACT is a real state of things. FALLACY is an apparently genuine but really illogical statement or argument.

IN the midst of Prohibition FALLACIES about evils that develop from liquor drinking, and further FALLACIOUS declarations that laws enacted against the manufacturer and dealer in alcoholic beverages will stop the use of liquors, it is a singular FACT that there has never been an anti-purchase, or anti-drink law enacted in America. Yet it is the drinker that Prohibitionists claim they are after!

INTERESTING FACTS, also, bearing upon this roundabout attempt of Prohibitionists to attain an end, are presented by Dr. Jacob E. Meeker in a debate at Worcester, Mass. His most salient point was this:

"IF it is right to purchase liquor, it cannot be morally wrong to sell it. The purchaser and user of liquor, so far as the moral aspect of this question is concerned, is not a bit better than the man that makes it or sells it to him. And as long as you are going to give respectability to the thousands and tens of thousands of good men and women who use these beverages, you are only playing at the proposition when you try to take the attitude of the Pharisee toward the man that makes what they want. Whenever we arrive at the point of understanding that the distiller, wine-maker and brewer are in the business because of the consumption of these beverages in this country, rather than that people drink because these persons make it, we will get at the right elements of this whole proposition."

IN other words, the FACT stands forth that while Mr. Blank has the right to purchase and use alcoholic beverages, or even manufacture them for his own use, the Prohibitionists take the ridiculous stand that no one should be allowed to sell liquor to him!

VEGETABLE CALOMEL

Vegetable calomel, extract of the root of the old-fashioned may-apple plant, does not salivate. As a liver stimulator, it's great. It's a perfect substitute for ordinary calomel (mercury); in fact, it's better, because its action is gentle instead of severe and irritating—and it leaves no mean, disagreeable after-effects. Physicians recognize this and prescribe may-apple root (podophyllin, they call it) daily.

Combined with four other standard, all-vegetable remedies, may-apple root may now be had at most any druggist's in convenient sugar-coated tablet form by asking for Sentanel Laxatives. If you forget the name, ask for the box that has the picture of the soldier on it.

They quickly clean out the poisons that are causing you headache, constipation, sour stomach, biliousness, dizzy spells, bad breath and coated tongue.

They are mild. They never gripe. And they are a bowel tonic as well as a cleanser and liver regulator. A 10c box should last one several weeks. A Physician's trial package (4 doses) will be mailed you free if you write mentioning this advertisement. The Sentanel Remedies Co., 802 Madison Ave., Covington, Ky.

Contest News for Courier Readers

CLUB OF THIRTY PERIOD NOW ON AND EXTENDS TO AND INCLUDING MAY

Time to Get Started in Contest Right Now; You Can Get Results if You go After Them in Right Way; Club of Thirty Period Makes This Ideal Time to Get Into Contest.

If you are not nominated in The Courier's Great Automobile and Profit Sharing Contest, better get so at once. There is nothing difficult about it. All you have to do is to sign the nomination blank which appears each day in the paper and send to The Contest Manager who will instruct you as to "what next." You may not feel the need of a car just now. This is not yet car weather, but car weather is coming and will be here before this contest is over. Then you will wish—too late—that you had the forethought to get into this competition and win that car. That will be too late. Now is the time.

TIME IS FLEETING—and you want to get started in your contest work at once. There is no reason why you cannot get out and get busy now. Do it. If you have your contest supplies, you should use them — keep them working every minute. If you have not them, it is your own fault. All you need do is send in your nomination and the matter will receive instant attention. Time is fleeting. It waits for no man or woman. This contest is going to be over before you realize it.

YOU CAN GET RESULTS — Perhaps you have gone once and found that your success did not come up to your expectations. That is an experience that many have. Now what was the matter with you? Did you put the proposition up to the people you saw in the right way? Did you start out and, after making a call, suggest fulsomely that you thought some of entering the contest and then wait for results? Or did you merely go to a house and ask the inmate if he or she subscribed to The Courier and being informed in the affirmative or negative, inquire abruptly if they would give the subscription to you? If you did, either of these things, you were wrong. You do not want or need to be timid about the matter, it is a business proposition. But the fact that you are a candidate in the contest makes a very great difference and the fact that you are working for a car makes a still greater difference.

A great many candidates make the mistake of saying, "Oh, of course, I would like the car but then I know I won't win it. I am just working for what I can get." Now this is not at all the right way to talk or even think. Make up your mind what you want and then stick to it that you are going to win it. When you express your own doubts, you instill doubts into the minds of others. Don't do it. They will be much more willing to help you if you think you are going to win—not just something—but something specific.

Don't wait until tomorrow to get busy. Go today. Do a little active hustling. You can win one of those cars but you must work if you do win. Don't hesitate or say it can't be done. Nowadays, the man who says a thing can't be done is interrupted by somebody doing it. Remember, this is an age of progression. You have to move the same day it occurs to you or the tide will sweep along and leave you stranded.

CLUB OF THIRTY PERIOD — is now on and is going to extend to May 1st, at 8 P. M. This will be positively the biggest and best bonus vote offer of this contest. Everything turned in up to this time by any candidate will count on this offer and it does not mean that the total sum of $30 must be turned in at one time but that every $30 turned in on new subscriptions up to and including 8 P. M., May 1st, by or for a contestant will entitle that contestant to a special certificate good for 600,000 bonus votes. No special certificates will be issued until after May 1st, when the total amount turned in by each contestant will be figured up and divided by 30.

This offer will be followed by another beginning May 2nd and extending to May 17th, during which every $25 turned in by or for contestants will entitle them to special certificates good for 300,000 bonus votes if the business is new or 150,000 if old. These are positively the only bonus vote offers to be made during this contest period.

HIS OWN STORY HOLDS A THRILL FOR THOUSANDS

Well Known Pittsburger is Qualified to Speak for Multitude.

The story told of E. C. Byers, of 347 Pearl Street, a well-known Pittsburg butcher, will strike home to many hundreds of men and women. In the recital of his sufferings he might have been spokesman for a multitude, for in all cities there are legions who will recognize as their own, Mr. Buyers' statement:

"I had constant spells of choking and coughing because of the secretions of mucus in my nose and throat, which I eventually swallowed as I slept and which finally affected my stomach. I would wake four or five times a night because of the choking sensations. Rarely did I ever get a night's rest.

"When I decided to take a remedy a friend said: 'You will not make a mistake if you try Tanlac.' I believed him. I have used two bottles and Tanlac has helped me so much that I just want to tell every one what it has done for me. My catarrh has practically gone entirely. I sleep much better and my sense of taste and smell that were badly affected have improved wonderfully. My appetite, too, has come back and I feel like I could eat eight or nine times a day. The pain over my eyes and in other parts of my head has disappeared. I get up in the mornings with a clear head, and not all stuffed up and dizzy as formerly."

Tanlac is now sold in Connellsville exclusively by the Connellsville Drug Co., where the premier preparation can now be had.—Adv.

DON'T NEGLECT KIDNEYS

Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Prescription, Overcomes Kidney Trouble.

It is now conceded by physicians that the kidneys should have more attention as they control the other organs to a remarkable degree and do a tremendous amount of work in removing the poisons and waste matter from the system by filtering the blood.

The kidneys should receive some assistance when needed. We take less exercise, drink less water and often eat more rich, heavy food, thereby forcing the kidneys to do more work than nature intended. Evidence of kidney trouble, such as lame back, annoying bladder troubles, smarting or burning, brickdust or sediment, sallow complexion, rheumatism, maybe weak or irregular heart action warns you that your kidneys require help immediately to avoid more serious trouble.

An ideal herbal compound that has had most remarkable success as a kidney and bladder remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. There is nothing else like it. It is Dr. Kilmer's prescription used in private practice and it is sure to benefit you. Get a bottle from your druggist.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the Connellsville Daily Courier.—Adv.

WILL THAT ITCH NEVER LET UP?

It certainly will. If you have eczema, get Ucanol. If you have hives, get Ucanol. If you have piles—well, one sufferer from a most aggravating and long standing case has just written: "Ucanol is the best pile cure in the world."

Ucanol is soothing, healing, antiseptic. It speeds up Nature's task of forming clean, new tissue. Common sense and Ucanol are Nature's "first-aids." You cannot cure a chronic disease in a day—you know that. But if you will give Ucanol just a fair chance, you will congratulate yourself for having done so. Ucanol may be new to you, but it's an old, old friendly aid to many sufferers from skin disorders.

At A. A. Clarke you can get a liberal supply for little money, with a refund guarantee that Ucanol will do all that is claimed for it or money refunded. For free trial sample write Tryol Products Co., Inc., Dept. 2X0, Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

WHY HAIR FALLS OUT

To stop falling fair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub well into the scalp. After a few applications all dandruff disappears and the hair stops coming out.—Adv.

Prevent Diphtheria.

A sore throat is a good breeding place for Diphtheria germs. Protect your children by never neglecting a Sore Throat. You can wisely depend upon TONSILINE. Give Tonsiline upon the first appearance of Sore Throat—don't give Diphtheria a chance in that throat in its weakened condition. When TONSILINE is swallowed it comes directly in contact with the diseased surface and induces a healthy condition of the membranes—then the system can better defend the throat if attacked by Diphtheria germs. Keep TONSILINE in the house where you can get it quick when needed. 25c., 50c. and $1.00.

PROTECT YOUR HOME

Your home should always be protected against infectious disease by having ready for instant use a bottle of hydrozone which is entirely free from acid. It is a reliable and very effective antiseptic which has a great many valuable uses right in the home.

Too many homes have been bereaved because germs of sore throat, scarlet fever and other infectious diseases have not been destroyed. Too many people have suffered with blood poisoning because no attention was given a scratch, bruise or hurt.

From any drug store get a bottle of hyclorite; it is a powerful yet positively safe germ killer and it nips infection instantly. Better get it now.

Rodines, Pa.—"I will drop you a few lines to let you know that your 'Favorite Prescription' has done me a wonderful lot of good.

"Seven years ago when our first child was born I was left miserable. I doctored with two physicians without any relief. I then went to see one of the head doctors in Williamsport; he said I must have an operation at once and that I should quit work, but that was something I could not do. I then began taking your 'Favorite Prescription,' and it helped me so much. I always suffered so until our last child was born when I got along nicely. I shall never go through it again without your medicine."—Mrs. F. W. Myers.

Interesting Facts about CRISCO

For Frying—For Shortening For Cake Making

Crisco is the best, the cream of vegetable oil.

Crisco is all vegetable. It remains of ideal consistency and does not separate.

Crisco keeps sweet and pure indefinitely because the parts of the oil which turn rancid have been eliminated.

Crisco makes a richer cake than butter, because it is a richer fat. Crisco is 100 per cent pure fat; butter contains approximately one-fifth water, salt and cured.

Crisco is a real food fat. Animal lard, and fats to which stearine has been added require a longer time to digest, taxing the digestive machinery.

TRAFIC RESUMED OVER BRANCH TIED UP BY LANDSLIDES

P. & R. CARS GO THROUGH

New Rolling Stock is Sent Into the Coal Fields to Continue Trip to Destination Under Load; Other News Of Interest to the Railroad Men.

The Ohio & Baltimore short line, which was blocked Sunday and Monday, was cleared yesterday. With both night and day shifts working the big mass of earth was thrown aside and the wrecked engine removed. There were tons of earth that had to be removed and the tracks had to be relaid. Coke traffic from Leisenring No. 2 and Juniata was tied up over Sunday and Monday on account of the accident.

GET NEW CARS.

Hearts of coal operators in the Somerset district were gladdened Monday when 50 new cars consigned to the Philadelphia & Reading railroad were distributed over the division here. The cars were being shipped by the Pressed Steel Car Company of McKees Rocks to the Pennsylvania railroad. They were loaded with railroad fuel.

HAS FLOWERS STARTED.

Henry Blocker, cashier at the Baltimore & Ohio freight house, will probably have flowers blooming by Easter. Blocker is growing several Easter plants in the windows of the freight house and with his care they are getting along wonderfully. He expects to have them in bloom for that day. The freight house office is the one office on the division here that is made cheerful by flowers.

WILL START WORK.

The work on the improvements in the yards at Fairmont are to be started soon by the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. A Mikado engine has been tried out on the curves between Grafton and that place with success and will probably be used regularly. The Baltimore & Ohio is going to improve the yards there and also erect a new passenger station this summer.

HEADLIGHT FLASHES.

A gang of men was repairing the tracks in the yards near the Yough bridge here yesterday afternoon. A frog was replaced.

The tool cars from here were ordered out Monday to replace two cars that were derailed on the siding of the Casparis Stone Company at Casparis.

Preparations are being made to complete the work on Bridge 49 recently constructed in the yards here. Several tracks have already been laid across the bridge and the east yards enlarged but several more are to be laid. The work on the bridge will commence as soon as the gang at Smithfield is through putting the scales in at that place.

Work on the leads to the turntable from the east yards is about completed. It was necessary to lay new leads from the east yards in order that the "S" type engines to be used here could be taken onto the turntable. The average yard track would not support one of the monsters.

A gang is still at work on the block system of the Western Maryland railroad on this division. The green and red plates were put in the semaphore Monday and connections will soon be made. The automatic system is already in use near Cumberland. Most of the third trick operators on the division have been laid off, and it will not be long until the blocks are in use.
